Rameshwaram is the only other lingam in the world named after Lord Rama. En route to visit Sri Muneeswaram Temple. There is a belief that Lord Rama, after his victorious battle, left for Ayodhya in one of King Ravana's vimanas. He felt he was being followed by Bramhaasthi dosham as he had killed King Ravana, who was a Brahmin. He stopped the vimana at this juncture because he felt that at this place the "Brahmaasthi Dosham" was not following him. He ascended from the vimana and asked God Shiva for a remedy. God Shiva blessed Lord Rama and advised him to install and praying four lingams at Manavari, Thiru Koneshwaram, Thiru Ketheshwaram and Rameshwaram in India, as the only remedy to get rid of the dosham. Visit the Kanniya Hot Springs in Trincomalee, a unique site featuring seven shallow hot wells arranged in a square formation with varying temperatures. The springs are closely associated with the legend of Ravana from the Ramayana. According to folklore, Ravana and his mother were devoted to Lord Shiva and worshipped at the nearby Koneswaram temple and the Hot springs of Kanniya. It is believed that when his mother passed away, Ravana struck the earth with his sword in several places.

From these points, hot water springs emerged, giving rise to the Kanniya Hot Springs seen today. The Gayathri Cathedral, also known as Sri-Lankatheeswarar Temple, is the very first temple dedicated to Goddess Gayathri. Gayathri Siddhar chose this place because it was a spiritual revelation. It is believed that the Tri Moortis – Siva, Brahma and Vishnu- appeared here when Prince Meganath, also known as Indrajit, son of an ancient Sri Lankan King Ravana Performed Siva Thapas and Nikumbala Yagna. Therefore, Gayathri Peedam is one of the important sites of the Ramayana Tour of Sri Lanka. Later Proceed to the Seetha Amman Temple. The temple is situated in Ashok Vatika (Vanam) According to tradition, the site is associated with Sita of the Ramayana epic. Ancient statues of Rama and Sita can be seen on one side of the temple. The temple seen today is a modern building with its paintings, statues and pillars decorated with sculptures, all depicting the tale of Rama and Sita.

The Ashok Vatika was one of the pleasure gardens of King Ravana of the well-known epic Ramayanaya. This is the exotic pleasure garden where King Ravana kept the depressed Sita, insisting that she marry him. It was here that the heart-warming meeting took place between her and Hanuman, who brought her Rama's ring with the news that Rama was looking for her. He offered to carry her back, but she refused, saying it would be an insult to Rama's honour if he did so. Part of this majestic garden still exists. Have Darshan of Hanuman's Footprint It is believed that when Hanuman leapt from India to Sri Lanka, he landed at this spot. The force of his impact on the ground was so great that it left an imprint of his feet on the solid ground. Thereafter, proceed to visit the Divurumpola temple. Although this Vihara is said to be established in the 6th A.D. Polonnaruwa period, it has a long history among people of having been started in the time of Rama, Rawana and Sita. Still revered by thousands, this holy haven was the place where Sita performed her Agni Pariksha (proving her chastity) to her husband Rama.

Continuing the practice for over thousands of years, villagers still pledge their fidelity or take oaths there, and even in certain courts, this agreement was binding. Since that time, this place has been respected and worshipped by people down the ages. Furthermore, it is said that this place was given the name "Divurumpola", or the place of making a vow. Not only in legends, but this name has been inscribed in the moonstone guarding the Devale in the premises.
