Night Stay: Mauritius

Day 2: Mauritius - Full day North Island Tour

A day full of contrast as you enjoy a tour of the North Island. Best known for its white sandy beaches and calm lagoons, the North Island of Mauritius has the biggest number of beach resorts and is the most developed part of the Mauritian coastline. Visit the capital of Port Louis, the Caudan Waterfront offering great shopping and the Citadel for a panoramic view of the city. The old and the new mingle through the contrast between the high-rise, the modern shopping Centre of the Caudan Waterfront and the existing colonial buildings.

Meal: Continental Breakfast, Indian Dinner

Day 3: Mauritius- Full day South Island Tour

Today, discover the South of Mauritius with it's many highlights on a full day tour – visit Floreal and Curepipe, the extinguished volcano of Trou aux Cerfs with its magnificent view, the sacred lake of Grand Bassin surrounded by the Black River National Park and the fascinating dunes of Chamarel - The seven-coloured earth. After that you can have your lunch on your own at a typical creole restaurant. After lunch, you will be driven down the SouthWest coast of Mauritius to Pomponette view point and enjoy some nice beach spots where you can have memorable photo snaps. Finally, enjoy a visit to the wild sea of Gris which is famous for its big waves and the unique view of "Roche Qui Pleur" view point.
