PLACES COVERED

Prayagraj

Prayagraj is the seventh most populous city in Uttar Pradesh and recently was ranked the world's 130th fastest growing city. Also known as the "city of Prime ministers", post independence, 7 out of 13 prime minister of India belonged to Prayagraj. All these seven leaders were either born in, were alumni of Allahabad University, or got elected from a constituency in Allahabad. The city's original name Prayaga comes from its position at the sacred union of the rivers Ganges, Yamuna and Saraswati. It is the second-oldest city in India and plays a central role in the Hindu scriptures, containing many temples and palaces.

Varanasi

Varanasi is situated on the banks of the Ganges and is located 320 km south-east of Lucknow. It is regarded as a holy city by Hindus, Buddhists and Jains. It is one of the oldest continuously inhabited cities in the world and the oldest in India. The Kashi Naresh is the chief cultural patron of Varanasi while the culture of Varanasi is closely associated with the river Ganges and its religious importance. The city has been a cultural and religious center in North India for thousand years. The Benares Gharana form of the Indian classical music was developed in Varanasi with many prominent Indian philosophers, poets, writers, and musicians.

Ayodhya

Ayodhya is located on the right bank of the river Saryu. It is a popular pilgrim centre as town is closely associated with Lord Rama, the seventh incarnation of Lord Vishnu. The ancient city of Ayodhya, according to the Ramayana, was founded by Manu. For centuries, it was the capital of the descendants of the Surya dynasty. Skanda and some other Puranas mention Ayodhya as one of the seven most sacred cities of India as it was the venue of many events in Hindu mythology. Today, Ayodhya is famous for its close association with the epic Ramayana and is a city of immense antiquity full of historical significance and sacred temples.

Bodh Gaya

Bodh Gaya is a village in the northeast Indian state of Bihar. Considered one of the most important Buddhist pilgrimage sites, it's dominated by the ancient brick Mahabodhi Temple Complex, built to mark the site where the Buddha attained enlightenment beneath a sacred Bodhi Tree. A direct descendant of the tree sits within the complex today, along with six other sacred sites, including a lotus pond.

Lucknow

Lucknow is the capital city of the state of Uttar Pradesh, India. A major metropolitan city of India, Lucknow is the administrative headquarters of the eponymous District and Division. It is the 2nd largest city in north, east and central India after Delhi (population-wise). It is also the largest city in Uttar Pradesh (population-wise). Lucknow has always been known as a multicultural city that flourished as a North Indian cultural and artistic hub and the seat of power of Nawabs in the 18th and 19th centuries.
