Southern Travels celebrates Golden Jubilee with unveiling of New Brand Logo

Southern Travels is extremely proud to be marking our 50th Anniversary - a significant milestone that few companies achieve. Golden Jubilee celebrations were held on 14th September 2022 at New Delhi. Hon'ble Union Minister for Tourism & Culture Sri G Kishan Reddy ji was the Chief Guest. On this historic occasion a New Brand logo was also Unveiled by the Hon'ble Minister. On this historic occasion a newly Band Logo was unveiled

Story line of the newly unveiled Brand Logo

Southern Travels logo embraces an "Arctic Tern Bird" This bird soars over Iceland. These small birds have one of the longest annual migrations of any animal on Earth. Every year, arctic terns migrate from the Arctic Circle to the Antarctic Circle - a round-trip journey of about 30,000 kilometres, covering Europe, Asia, and North America. Arctic terns hold the record for the longest migration of any animal in the world, annually making the journey from the Arctic Circle to the Antarctic Circle. One particularly committed tern made the trip in nearly 60,000 miles, or more than twice the circumference of the planet.

2000 Years Glorious History of Southern India

The following dynasties ruled Southern India during the last 2000 years.

Andhra Satavahana Kings ruled North coastal Andhra from 230 B.C. to 220 A.D. for a period of 450 years. Their capital was Dhanyakatakam (Amaravathi in Guntur District). Their contribution to Buddhist Art and Architecture was remarkable. Nagarjuna Konda (known as Southern gateway of Sanchi) was built by the great king Gautamiputra Satakarni. The great Buddhist University flourished at Nagarjunakonda on the banks of river Krishna where Acharya Nagarjuna taught. There is a historic saying that the king Chandra Gupta took the military help of Satavahanas and established Gupta empire (Golden period in Indian History) with Pataliputra (Patna) as the capital. Then he became Chandra Gupta Vikramaditya.

Chera Empire was the earliest which ruled the areas of present Kerala and parts of Tamilnadu, Karur as the capital. The second empire that ruled Southern India was Cholas as its capital Gangaikonda Cholapuram from 850 A.D. to 1044 A.D. Rajendra Chola was popular king. He was honoured with the title "Gangai Konda Chola." Cholas local self government was the basis of modern local governments.

Chalukyas of Badami (543-757 A.D.) defeated the Army of emperor Harshavardhana on the banks of river Narmada when he tried to conquer South India in 1634 A.D. Virupaksha temple at Badami in Karnataka was the best specimen of Chalukya Architecture. Their empire extended from Northern Coastal Andhra, to Tamilnadu and Karnataka.

Rashtrakutas ruled from (745-756 A.D.) Ellora as their capital. They built great rock temples of Vishnu and Shiva at Ellora (Aurangabad) including Kailash temple. Kannada language and literature flourished during this period.

Pandiyas ruled the entire Tamilnadu from pre-historic times till the end of 15th century with their capital Madurai. The world famous Meenakshi Sundareswarar Temple was built by Kulasekhara Pandya. They established extensive trade links with South East Asian Maritime empires.

Pallavas ruled Southern India with their capital Kanchipuram from 290-893 A.D. Pallavas Empire extended from Krishna river in the North and Cape Comorin in the South. Mahendra Varman and his son Narasimha Varman were the greatest kings among the Pallava rulers. Sanskrit became official language of Pallavas. The rock shore temple and 7 Pagodas built by Pallavas at Mahabalipuram near Chennai are the world famous monuments today.

Kakatiya kingdom played an important role in the history of Deccan. They ruled from 1000-1320 A.D. Orugallu (Warangal) was their capital. They patronized Sanskrit and Telugu literature. The famous Telugu poet POTANA was contemporary to Pallava King Pratapa Rudra. Kakatiya Empire was defeated in the hands of King Aurangzeb's Army. Vidyaranya Swamy, Harihara Raya and Bukka Raya, the Commander-in-Chiefs of Kakatiya kings laid the foundation for Vijayanagara Empire in 1336 at Hampi (Karnataka) on the banks of river Tungabhadra and they are the first rulers of Vijayanagara Kingdom.

Vijayanagara Empire ruled the entire Southern India from 1336 to 1572. King Krishnadeva Raya was one of the ablest and greatest of all the rulers. He patronized Telugu and Kannada literatures and constructed the present outer wall of Sri Venkateswara (Balaji) Temple at Tirumala. Rayala Mandapam within Tirumala temple is a shining example of architectural beauty of Vijayanagara kings today. Virupaksha temple and Lotus Mahal of Vijayanagara Kings were the embodiment of Indo- Islamic style at Hampi.

Bahamani Sultans ruled a part of Southern India after the fall of Vijayanagar Empire in 1565 A.D. till the advent of British to India in 1639.
